Getting Started

Under the auspices of the Office for Family Life & Faith Support Groups of the Archdiocese of Detroit, Bethany provides spiritual, social, and educational support to the divorced and separated.

When you are a member of a Bethany support group you will find a place where you can express your pain, anger and frustration in the company of understanding and sympathetic people who are also experiencing the trauma of divorce.

Through facilitated group discussions (where you can share whatever you are comfortable with), guest speakers and a workbook and video series relating the stages of recovery for yourself and your children, you will learn to grow beyond the pain and anger. You will regain your self esteem and eventually see the road to recovery and a new life ahead.

Bethany Divorce Recovery Programs

You will receive many easy to read hand-outs on these and other topics as dealing with loneliness, depression, betrayal, self-esteem, anger, stress, parenting during and after divorce, helping children understand divorce, surviving holidays and finally forgiveness. We also have many books dealing with all the above topics which you may borrow.

Bethany's goal is to console and educate you on how to survive the trauma of divorce and lessen the pain of your recovery. The following are some of the topics that are covered.

Bethany offers Drop In Get Togethers and 12 Week Programs:

- ◆ Newly Hurting
- ◆ Healing the Wounds of Divorce
- ◆ Growing Through Divorce
- ◆ Single Parents with Children
- ◆ Divorce and Beyond
